"What has become of the old-fashioned man to whom Sunday was a day of rest for his feet?

New York doctors say the tango is good for the liver. Maybe, but stewed rhubarb would be better.

A best seller is a man who has a notice of his latest success published right next to a corset ad.

If the women take to hoop skirts the street car people will simple have to put on additional vehicles.

learned how to spell Cucuracha everybody quit talking about the slide.

If you want to give a fortune teller some real worry, just ask her what the women are going to wear next year.

We are asked, "What is the difference between the soap box orator and the sophead orator?" There isn't any.

One trouble about these proposed Bible movies is that the bears are liable to shove Elisha from the spot-

There ought to be some way to standardizing strawberry shortcake. Some of the forms it takes are terrible indeed.

most powerful, but for hypnosis there is nothing like the "coal black eye" you read about.

Paris has witnessed and applauded an opera without words. This shows once more the overwhelming popularity of the movies.

Business Is on Its Way Out Again. Speaking of the business outlook the Manufacturers' Record says that a group of New York men had gathered in a rather mournful spirit, and as they discussed the business outlook, which seemed to them to grow darker and darker, one wit in the party, turning to a staid, much perturbed financier, said:

"Mr. Blank, can you tell me how far a dog can run into the woods?"

Mr. Blank, somewhat irritated at such a trivial remark at a time of serious discussion, rather tartly replied that "he supposed a dog could run into the woods just as far as he

"No," said the questioner, "when he has run half-way into the woods he is then running out of the woods."

BAD TETTER ON HANDS

R. F. D. No. 1, Critz, Va.-"I had tetter on my hands so badly that I could hardly do anything. It would begin to come in clear white blisters, then they would burst and peel off all over and crack and bleed. My hands were so sore and itched so badly I could not rest day or night. I could not put them in water nor do my regular work.

"I tried medicine and several different kinds of cream on them but they got worse instead of better. Nothing did me any good until I tried Cuticura Soap and Ointment. And now my hands are perfectly well and all right." (Signed) Miss Ellen Tudor, Nov. 19, Cuticura Soap and Ointment sold throughout the world. Sample of each free, with 32-p. Skin Book. Address postcard "Cuticura, Dept. L, Boston."-Adv.

Some Bootless Remarks.

The whole-souled fellow is not half so likely to go on his uppers as the half-souled ones. The former is usually better heeled and doesn't peg out and leave a fellow in the lurch when he finds it necessary to revamp his fortunes after business affairs have run counter to his desires

Important to Mothers
Examine carefully every bottle of CASTORIA, a safe and sure remedy for infants and children, and see that it

Signature of Charty Telebers. Children Cry for Fletcher's Castoria

Complicated Courtesies.

"I tried to apologize to my wife," said Mr. Meekton, "but it was con-

"Every time I tried to say anything she insisted on saluting back, word for

SHAKE INTO YOUR SHOES Allen's Foot-Base, the Antiseptic powder for Tired, Tender, swollen, nervous feet. Gives rest and comfort. Makesdancing a delight. Sold everywhere, toc. Don't accept any substitute. For FREE sample, address Allen S. Olmsted, Le Roy, N. Y. Adv.

Tribulation.

He-Darling, why are you so sad? (gulping down a sob)-Oh, dearest, I was just thinking this will be our last evening together until tomorrow night!-Puck.

Whenever You Need a General Tonic Take Grove's

The Old Standard Grove's Tasteless chill Tonic is equally valuable as a handwriting expert. General Tonic because it contains the well known tonic properties of QUININE | Medical Examinations On. and IRON. It acts on the Liver, Drives out Malaria, Enriches the Blood and Builds up the Whole System. 50 cents.

As to Jones.

"Jones puts his watch under his "I notice he likes to sleep over-

Piles Cured in 6 to 14 Days

OINTMENT fails to cure any case of Itching. Blind, Bleeding or Protruding Piles in 6 to 14 days. The first application gives Ease and Rest. 50c

The mystery of the Mona Lisa smile has at last been solved. The artist caught her expression when she was trying to laugh at one of her husband's jokes.

Not to Be Doubted. "Beauty is only skin deep." "That may be, but it's the best skin game going." Cures Old Sores, Other Remedies Won't Cu e. The worst cases, no matter of how long standing; Porter's Antiseptic Healing Oil. It relieves Lain and Heals at the same time. 25c, 50c, $1.08. August 4-14.

HORNE MONUMENT

COMMEMORATES COURAGE AND DEVOTION OF WOMEN OF THE CONFEDERACY.

Just when the American public LATE STATE CAPITOL NEWS

Review of the Latest News Gathered gives each state $10,000 for each fiscal Around the State Capitol That year as a basic fund. Will Be of Interest to Our Readers Over North Carolina.

Raleigh. veterans and 1,000 or more Daughters appropriations are as follows: 1915of the Confederacy taking part, the 16, $600,000; 1916-17, $1,100,000; ceremonies for the unveiling of the 1917-18, $1,600,000; 1918-19, $2,100,-Horne monument to the North Caro- 000; 1919-20, $2,000,000; 1920-21-, $3,lina women of the Confederacy given 100,000; 1921-22, $3,600,000; 1922-23, to the state were carried out. The and thereafter, $4,100,000. veterans were here in annual reunion | It will be noticed that after 1915-16 Horne and the state.

Experts say that light blue eyes are Regiment Band furnished music.

theme being "The Spirit, Character 1922-23 is reached. and Deeds of the North Carolina Wowomen of the Confederacy.

monument to the state, addressing 315 minus $10,000, or $57,315. Governor Craig for this purpose. He paid a most fitting tribute to Ashley Horne who made the monument possible, depicting him as having loved the South and especially North Carolina and having admired most of all that type of life found in the South-

Governor Locke Craig, who declared grateful appreciation as the tribute of a knightly soldier to the women of the Confederacy. The statue, he said, is an epic with heroism and devotion

Prepare Instruction Camp.

The city of tents which will accommodate the hundreds of young men from various Southern colleges and universities during the time that they are receiving instructions for service in the United States army under the auspices of the war department will begin to rise at the foot of Sunset Mountain, a message from Robert O. Van Horn, chief of staff, bearing the information that Captains Day and latter part of the week for Asheville. Army engineers will prepare for the drainage of the land, electricians will have supervision of the stringing of the wires, construction men will arrange the tents and water and sewer lines will be laid. By the date set for the beginning of the maneuvres everything will be in readiness for Southern high school, college and university graduates who are desirious of taking training under competent instructors assigned to duty at Asheville by the war department.

Craig Names Board of Election.

Governor Craig announces the appointment of the state board of elections as follows: Wilson G. Lamb. Williamston; R. C. Claywell, Morganton; J. B. Underwood, Fayetteville; W. J. Davis, Hendersonville, and Clarence Call, Wilkesboro. Colonel Lamb contiues chairman of the board. Mr. Claywell has served several terms as secretary. Mr. Call represent the Republicans and Mr. Davis the Progres-

Secretary Issues New Charters.

The Bobbett-Forbes Warehouse Company, Greensboro, capital $25, 000 authorized and $1,100 subscribed by A. V. Bobbitt and others.

Evidence in the McArthur Case. The defense completed the taking of evidence in the Federal court trial of the noted cas of Citizen's Bank of Norfolk vs. Adam McArthur and Mrs. M. E. McArthur involving the genuineness of $25,000 in notes held by the bank against the defendants and it is expected that the case will go to the jury soon. This is the second trial the first one some months ago, having resulted in a hung jury. Much of the time was taken up with the examination of David N. Carvalho, the famous

The State Board of Medical Examiners began the examination of 150 medicine in this state. Dr. Benjamin Hayes of Oxford is chairman of the board and the work will not be completed for several days, the names Your druggist will refund money if PAZO ciety in session three days in Raleigh. passes upon their methods under the Encampment of N. C. Guard.

Official notice comes to Adjutant General Young of the North Carolina National Guard that for the encampment of the Second Infantry, Corps No. 1 at Camp Glenn July 1 to Association appeared before the plat-10 the War Department will have in attendance for joint maneuvers Company H, Twenty-Ninth Infantry, U. S. A., under command of Col. J. S. Mallory. The dates of encampments of the creation of a separate public serother regiments are: Third Regi- vice commission to take the railroad

State's Share in Smith-Lever Act. Washington-The maximum amount North Carolina can receive under the Smith-Lever Co-Operative Agricultural Extension act for the fiscal year 1914-15 is $10,000; for 1915-16, $32,953; 1916-17, $52,081. For 1917-18, 1918-19, 1919-20, 1920-21 and 1921-22 and each year the amount of $19,127 to the total for the immediately preceding year. For 1922-23 and thereafter $166,846 wil be provided. The act provides that each state must duplicate all Federal money above $10,000 a year.

In explaining the appropriation the department of agricultures ays: The act first appropriates $480,000 annually, beginning with 1914-15, and

The act then appropriates additional Federal moneys to be distributed in the proportion of rural population. To share in these additional fnuds the state must dpulicate the additional With twelve hundred Confederate money thus received. The additional and joined in fine tribute to the the total appropriation is increased women of the South exemplified in each year by $500,000. The fifth the magnificent gift to the state that column in the table shows the amount testifies the appreciation of Mr. of each additional $500,000 that the state is entitled to receive. To get The exercises began in the auditor- the amount that any state is entitled ium at 11 o'clock with an invocation to receive for any fiscal year from bama, in 1917-18 will receive $49,404 Dr. D. H. Hill, president of the A. plus $17,911 equals $67,315; for 1918ed the address for the occasion, his the maximum given under the column

The totals for each state contain brief, fitting remarks, presented the have to duplicate in 1917-18 is $67,- client.

> North Carolina Editors Prepare. President Clarence Poe of the North Carolina Press Association made public the completed program for the North Carolina Press Association to be in session at Wrightsville Beach, The speech of acceptance was by June 24 to 26. The president's address will have for its theme "The Editor as a Crusader." Bion H. Butthat the state accepts it with most ler of The Raeford Journal will have a paper, "North Carolina Slopping Over With Opportunities; What Can the Press Do in Developing Them." President Graham of the State University will discuss "Civil Service Work; An Opportunity for the Press." Josephus Daniels will deliver an address. All these features will charac-> terize the first morning session. Wednesday night R. F. Beasley of The Monroe Journal will deliver the annual oration, his theme being "The Tyranny of the Status Quo." The poem will be read by William Laurie Hill, this followed by a Dutch supper by citizens of Wilmington.

Business problems will be considered at the session of the editors Thurs-Brown with their troops will leave the day morning. And during the afternoon there wil be trolley rides and bathing. Thursday night Editor Norman Hapgood of Harper's Weekly, will deliver his address and the general business of the convention rounded up. On Friday there will be a trip down the Cape Fear on the steamer Wilmington.

Fine Wheat At Farm.

received from the farm of the Central State. Hospital for the Insane specimens of wheat from a 70-acre field that are especially fine, the tallest bundle measuring five to six inches long, especially well filled out. There are three varieties, purple straw, fulcoster and red wonder. The farm superintendent expects the wheat crop to thrash out an average of 40 or more bushels an acre.

Little Tobacco Sold in May.

Only five leaf tobacco markets in North Carolina reported leaf tobacco sales on warehouse floors for the month of May, according to the report of the state board of agriculture just issued. These were Reidsville, 116,-956 pounds; Winston-Salem, 67,218; Durham, 25,620; Mount Airy, 454, and Stoneville, 350 pounds. The sales for May, 1913, were 26,704 pounds.

Oil Painting of Ashley Horne.

In presiding for the ceremony of unveiling and presenting to the state the oil painting of Ashley Horne, Mrs. M. A. Winstead of Rocky Mount delivered an especially eloquent address in which she declared this one of the proudest days for the women of the state in all the history of North Carolina and especially so for the United Daughters of the Confederacy, and that the ceremonies of the unveiling of the monument just witnessed was one of the most imposing and beautiful ever held at the state capital.

James R. Young Gives Warning. Commissioner of Insurance James R. Young, before leaving for New York applicants for licenses to practice to attend important meetings of the executive committee and the committee on standard form of life policies of the National Association of Insurance Commissioners, served notice on of those successful to be announced certain land concerns that they and in connection with the annual conventheir agents must stop operations in tion of the North Carolina Medical So- this state until the attorney general The examination of 50 applicants for "blue sky act" of the last legislature. licenses to practice pharmacy in this He says he finds that very many people continue to become the victims.

Separate Freight Rate Commission.

There is considerable comment here on the fact that after the special committees from the progressive convention and the State Just Freight Rate form committee of the Democratic State Convention and presented their instructions for a plank calling for ment, July 14-24; First Regiment, rate part of the duties of the present Corporation Commission

YOUNG MAN CONVICTED OF SWAIN MURDER, SENTENCED TO ELECTRIC CHAIR.

JUDGE SHAW BREAKS DOWN

Dramatic Moments Marked Conclusion of Sensational Murder Trial Just Ended at Charlotte.

tenced to be electrocuted August 14 a Union." between the hours of 6 a. m. and 4 p.

m., for his mrime. Following the announcement of the jury's verdict in the morning at 9 entire day for the counsel of the defendant to do what it could do to offby Rev. A. E. Osborne, late colonel of 1917 to 1922 add the amount given in set the outcome of the deliberations the Fourth North Carolina Regiment, the table to the total for the immedi- of the jury. It was a task too monu-Confederate Sates Army. The Third ate preceding year. Example: Ala- mental for human capacities and the three men who have tried to stand between the iron hand of the law and & M. College and son of General D. H. 19 Alabama will receive $67,315 plus the life of this young man fell back Hill of the Confederate Army, deliver- $17,911 equals $85,226; and so on until aghast before the work that was laid out for them to do. They could not stay the majestic movements of the law, the inevitable consequence of the men of the Confederacy." It was an the basic $10,000 granted each year, court's proceedings and while they inspiring story of the heroism and To obtain the amount that the state toiled laboriously and fought tactfulsacrifices made by the North Carolina would have to duplicate in any year ly and gave up hopefully, they failed to receive its entire Federal quota, to find a flaw upon which the court

With many motions swept away by Judge Shaw and no further ground left upon which the counsel for the unfortunate youth could plant its feet in behalf of his life, the court called upon Trull to stand up. The defendant sprang from his seat at the call and faced the bench. He was unflinching. His face showed a sickly pallor. In appearance he was translated from an impetuous youth of the first day's trial to a wrecked piece of countenance was pallid; his hair was wrecked with perspiration, but his was as cool and composed as any man in the congested corridors of the court house. He spoke without tremor; he was unsupported so far as friends and relatives were involved. No man who had lifted a voice for him was near except his lawyers. His step-father was not in court.

FIGHT FOR ROAD MONEY.

Overman and Simmons Do Not Intend to Let Money Slip.

Washington. - Senators Overman and Simmons are going to the mat with Fourth Assistant Postmaster General Blakeslee. They will meet him in Postmaster General Burleson's office and discuss the $10,000 that he says Davidson county cannot have ments of the law, and which he now red, may be shipped in The state department of agriculture threatens to turn over to some other

"I do not intend to let that money cal leave North Carolina if I can prevent it," said Senator Simmons. "I told the Postmaster General the other day, in the presence of Senator Overman and Charles M. Thompson of Davidson county, that Blakeslee was trying to find an excuse to take the $10,000 away from our allotment. Mr. Burleson said he would not let

It looks now as if the Forsyth-Davie-Iredell project would get the $10,000 that Davidson has lost. This will make $30,000 for that road. Those counties have offered to put up the rest of the money for that $100,-000 project if Uncle Sam will give them $30,000.

Both Senator Overman and Simmons are in fighting mood.

Make Final Arrangements.

Wilmington.-At a meeting of the committee of local newspaper men and the entertainment committee of cently, final arrangements were made for the entertainment of the editors at the annual meeting of the North Carolina Press Association which will be held here June 24 and 25. When Secretary of Navy Daniels arrives he will be met at the station by a special car Peak is one of the highest points in same morning.

Lewis Has Good Cotton. Gastonia.-For 18 years past E. P. Lewis, originator of the now famous lightning disabled the plant for a few Lewis long-staple cotton, has taken the measurement of the height of his cotton stalks on June 10 each year. On that date this year his highest the damage. stalk was 13 inches. Last year in the same date the highest stalk was 10 inches. The lowest it has been at any time within the 18 years was streets which have not yet been imabout six years ago when the tallest stalk was only six and one-fourth inches high. Mr. Lewis says he has a prety good stand this year.

Takes on New Life.

Hendersonville. - The Hendersonville Merchants Association, which became inactive about two years ago when the Greater Hendersonville Club took on new life, has been resurrected with an employed secretary and a membership of 31. The officers are: President, R. M. Oates; vice president, J. O. Williams; secretary, John W. Grimes. The club has named J. C. Morrow, R. C. Clark and J. W. Grimes as delegates to the State Merchants Association to be held in Dur

STATE ITEMS

OF INTEREST TO ALL NORTH CAROLINA PEOPLE.

B. Y. P. U. Elects Officers. The annual convention of the North Carolina Baptist Young People's Union adojurned at Ralegh to meet next year at Mount Airy. Officers were elected for the next year as follows: Presdient, L. Bunn Olive, Apex; vicepresidents, W. G. Privtt, Washington, W. C. Barrett, Gastonia, W. M. Gilmore, Louisburg, G. T. Page, Lumberton, R. G. Kendrick, Greensboro; recording secretary, Miss Beulah Bowden, Mars Hill; treasurer, L. F. Foust, Raleigh; auditor, L. R. Norris, Raleigh. This was the final day of the convention and, like the two preceding days, was taken up largely with Charlotte.—"I'm awfully sorry for addresses and special discussions on you," sobbed Judge Shaw as he spoke phases of union and personal work the words of death to Charles T. Trull along the lines of B. Y. P. U. service. at 6:40 o'clock after the final page in This morning W. H. Weatherspoon of the tragic chapter of his trial for the Laurinburg made an address on teachmurder of the late Sidney Swain had ing that can be done in the union been written in the court records of work. Rev. Theo. B. Davis, of Zebuthis county. The young man was sen- lon, told "How to Insure the Life of Jockey With Rates. Mr. Lincoln Green, freight traffic manager of the Southern Railway and o'clock, the court had designated the one of the foremost experts in the country on the various elmnts entering into th fabric of rate-making in this territory, spent practically all of the day on the witness stand before Special Examiner Richard Eddy, Jr., of the interstate commerce commission, who is conducting the present general inquiry into the rate situation as it relates to the transportation charges from the Appalachian coal fields to the Carolinas. Mr. Green's testimony was largely technical and dealt with conditions which he declared existed in this territory and such as affected the proposition of rate making. He arraigned the contention At the monument J. A. Long, chair- subtract $10,000 from the total. Ex- would open up to them the avenue of of Mr. E. J. McVan, the noted rate exman of the Memorial Commission, in ample: The amount Alabama would opportunity for saving the life of their pert of Omaha, Neb., who had argued basis for fixing the standard rate into the Carolina territory from the coal

Prepare For Tourist Season.

That Waynesville is anticipating the largest summer season in her history is evidenced by the unusual preparations made by the hotels and the boarding house people, and by the booking of several trains for this city by the Southern Railway traffic de-

NORTH CAROLINA BRIEFS.

Senator Overman introduced a bil. to provide $25,000 for a meaument to be erected to Sir Walter Raleigh at Raleigh. The bill provides that the land upon which the statue is placed must be donated. The design is to be passed on by the secretary of war. For the purpose of familiarizing himself with the work done by the state convicts since his last visit to Western North Carolina, Dr. Joseph Hyde Pratt, state geologist, left for an inspection tour of the Asheville-Charlotte highway. He was accompanied by Dr. M. H. Fletcher. The cattle quarantine in Lenoir county instituted by the United States and state departments of agriculture has resulted in the curtailment of Kinston's beef supply. The chamber of commerce has decided to ask the departments and the county commissioners to have dipping vats erected on the Duplin and Jones lines, so that because it has not met the require- cattle from those counties now debar-

The thirteenth annual convention of the North Carolina Veterinary Medi-Association will be held in the chamber of commerce rooms in Wilson, June 23 and 24. Dr. M. J. Ragland of Salisbury is president.

J. W. Hatchet is in a serious cond tion at his home near Statesville as the result of being struck by a falling tree. Mr. Hatchett was in the woods on his place when the accident occurred. Two trees were being cut at the same time and while he was watching one tree the other struck

The annual celebration at Guilford Battle Ground on July 4 this year will be featured by the presence of Hon. W. H. Murray, widely known as "Alfalfa Bill" and at present a member of the United States Congress. By reason of being chairman of the constitutional convention he is referred to as the father of Oklahoma's constitution.

The following readustment of postoffice classification is announced. High point from second to first class; third class to second class, Albemarle, Edenton, Louisburg and North Wilkes-

A year ago the thought that an automobile would ever make the trip to the top of High Peak, 8 miles from Morganton, would have been laughed at but today it can be made over one of the finest roads in the state. High which will take him immediately to this section of the state, is several the beach, where he will speak the hundred feet higher than Battery Park and gives a splendid view

Solomon Godfrey was electrocuted at the Southern Power Company's substation at Lexington. A flash of minutes and Godfrey, who was an employe of the Dacotah Cotton Mill, which is nearby, was helping to repair

The Statesville aldermen have passed ordinances creating street improvement districts on a number of proved and concrete sidewalks will be laid on these at once. With this work completed there will be few streets in the town that do not have concrete Salisbury's first public playground was opened recently. It is located at the Chestnut Hill public school and will be conducted along the lines of public playgrounds in lager cities.

Fire was discovered blazing from the upper story window of one of the business houses at Spencer recently. The fire companies did excellent work in being able to prevent the whole block from being burned. This building formed a part of the best business block here. The origin of the fire is unknown. It is estimated that the loss is about $2,000.

EVERY DETAIL

attended to by experienced men. When you need our services simply telephone---we attend to everything else. You can leave it all to us with the greatest confidence. Ask any friends whom we have assisted on this sad occasion, they are our best reference.

Everything of the Best at Reasonable Prices Telephone Number Twenty-Three

Burroughs-Pittman-Wheeler Co. Scotland Neck, N. C. Everybody's Store

The Metz Roadster

Price Complete $475 F.O.B. Factory

The METZ is a thoroughly practical car, and is capable of more real service at a minimum cost than any low priced car on the market, and it will compare favorably with many of the higher priced cars. In plain language it is "as tough as a lightwood knot." If you are interested in a light weight, thoroughly reliable roadster, let us demonstrate the METZ, and we are sure you will be more than pleased with it.

Maxwell Touring

The MAXWELL Touring Car is designed for real service as well as pleasure. Every piece used in its construction passes the most rigid injection by the most experienced experts. The equipment of the Maxwell is complete and contains all the most highly approved appliances for comfort, safety and services. There is no car on the market today of the same class that the Maxwell will not meet in competition.

$750 to $950

The Maxwell Touring Car

is an economical car, as it will travel more miles with the same amount of gasoline, or the same miles with less gasoline. It is absolutely safe, being easily controlled under all circumstances. A demonstration of the high qualities of the Maxwell can be had at any time by simply the asking.

Telegraph, telephone, write or come to see us, and we will be glad to give any information you desire regarding either the Metz or Maxwell cars, and demonstrate either to your satisfaction. An investment in either of these automobiles is a good one, and we can prove it.

S. B. Kitchin, Jr.

Selling Agent Scotland Neck, N. C.